Alighiero Boetti at Galerie Tornabuoni Art, Paris

Galerie Tornabuoni Art in Paris, to mark the opening of its new gallery, is hosting a retrospective exhibition of the works of Alighiero Boetti (1940-94). The exhibition is on view from February 3 to April 8, 2017.

The exhibition is the largest-ever retrospective of the works of Alighiero Boetti shown in a private gallery. Located in the iconic Passage de Retz in the heart of the Marais and its vibrant art scene, this 17th-century mansion provides a spectacular setting. The Boetti retrospective features work spanning from his early ink drawings, to pieces related to the Arte Povera movement, the Bollini (stickers), Lavori Postali (postal works), Aerei (airplanes) and Biro (ballpoint pen) series, important works on paper and the artist's iconic embroideries. The revolutionary aspect of Boetti's work was to radically question the role of the artist and the impact of chance, sequence, language, repetition and authorship in the creation of a work of art. Encompassing his entire career, this show illustrates the breadth of Boetti's influence and the significance of his work within contemporary art.

The exhibition is at Galerie Tornabuoni Art, Passage de Retz, 9 rue Charlot, 75003 Paris.
